Sage School

Acknowledgement of Receipt and Understanding

The rules and regulations contained in The Sage School Family Handbook are not meant to be comprehensive. Rather, they presuppose the good will and judgment of a student in all circumstances in which she/he may find him/herself and are subject to The Sage School's ultimate discretion, judgment and interpretation.

Students and parents are asked to familiarize themselves with all of the information contained in this Family handbook, and sign the form below.

We have read, understood and agree to abide by and honor all statements and provisions set forth in the Family Handbook.
